for San Francisco with 2546 bags sugar, 450 bags rice and 210 bbls of molasses.
Value $16,150.

On account of the Jas Makee sailing to-morrow at 9 a.m., and no freight being received on that day, an extra force of men will be employed to load her to-night.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

A young German wants a situation. See adv.

Work on the new skating rink on Queen street is progressing favorably.

The new boiler for the Kilaua Hou will be placed in position tomorrow.

We hear that Mrs. Strong has been appointed to teach drawing in the Fort Street School.

Messrs. Bishop & Co. give the rate of exchange for the outgoing steamer at 2 1/2 per cent.

ENTRIES for the regatta close tomorrow at the office of Mr. M. D.
Monsarrat, at 1 o'clock.

JOHN A. Palmer has got a few choice building lots for sale, and several well furnished rooms for rent.

THE MECHANICS' Benefit Union will meet at the rooms of Engine Co.
No. 2 this evening, at half-past seven.

KUEA, the last of the four escaped prisoners, is still at large. It is reported he was seen in Manoa valley yesterday.

THERE is nothing in the world that costs so much money in production, and which sells for so little, as a newspaper.

THE S. S. Mariposa sails at noon to-morrow. Letter writers take notice and remember the mail closes at 10 o'clock.

THE steamer Lehua left last evening for Windward Ports at five o'clock, after having had her new mast fixed in position.

TO-MORROW evening, if the weather be fine, Fire Marshal McGuire will illuminate the Bell Tower in honor of His Majesty's forty-eighth birthday. The illumination will take place on Monday evening should the weather prove unfavorable to-morrow.

ONE of the new street lamps is at the corner of Queen and South sts., where it was much needed.

THE wrecked schooner Pauahi was sold alone for $10, notwithstanding what the Guide says to the contrary this morning.

LYONS & LEVEY will hold their regular cash sale to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, and at that time will sell a large assortment of crockery and furniture.

THE lease of the Old Corner restaurant was sold yesterday by Mr.
E. P. Adams, to G. W. Keawe-mahi for $400. The lease has five years and seven months to run.

THE Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club hat ribbons, bearing the initials of the club for use on regatta day, can be obtained from the Secretary at W. G. Irwin & Co.'s office until 2 o'clock to-morrow.

IN addition to the prize offered by the committee in No. 8 race for sixoared boats, Mr. Williams the well-known photographer, will give a photograph of the winning crew 14x7 and nicely framed.

AS the W. G. Irwin is nineteen days out to day, it is not very possible that the Consuelo will arrive before the Alameda with election news, as she may probably have to make as long a trip as the Irwin.

THE large credit sale held by Auctioneer Adams at H. Hackfeld & Co.'s during the past week, closed this afternoon. The attendance has been very good, the Orphan has pleased, satisfied and delighted everyone in attendance, which is nothing new, and between $60,000 and $70,000 has been realized.

THE flag ship of the Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club on regatta day will be the steamer Planter, kindly loaned by the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. Mr. A.
Frank Cooke has also been kind enough to loan his small tug boat, to convey guests to and from the boat landing to the flag ship.

Mrs. Ballantine died at three o'clock this morning from heart disease after a long and painful illness.
The deceased will be better known as the wife of J. T. Chayter, who committed suicide several years ago.
The funeral took place this afternoon from St. Andrews Cathedral, the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh officiating.

THE Band concert to-morrow afternoon at Emma Square will be unusually interesting. Bandmaster Berger is going to revive the old favorite opera "Pinafore," by playing a selection from it. He has also composed a grand march in honor of the King's birthday, and two new quicksteps, one called "The Winning Boat," both of which will be heard at this concert.

WE have often heard people wonder why so many hogs are brought to these Islands. The W. G. Irwin now due has nearly 300 on board.
The Hon. J. I. Dowsett informs us that the Chinese in Honolulu, when the supply of hogs is good, consume about 1,600 lbs. of pork every day except Sunday, when they eat ducks or chickens sent by their friends from the country. If they can't get pork of course they eat beef, but do not care for it.

IN the Police Court this morning, J. P. Shaw forfeited bail of $6 for drunkenness. Iapeka, charged with escaping from prison, was sentenced to three months' additional imprisonment. He was sent to prison in August last for five years, for assaulting a woman. Sun Pun Yong, a restaurant keeper, was charged with having a nuisance in his yard.
He was fined $10 and ordered to remove the nuisance forthwith, and not to offend again.

THE Postmaster-General gives notice that, owing to the increase of correspondence between Hawaii and other countries to which sailing vessels only go direct, particularly China and Japan, the attention of Agents and Masters of outward bound vessels is called to the clause of the law which says "that due written notice shall be given to the Postmaster, of the day and hour of intended departure, before receiving clearance papers." Due written notice means at least twenty-four hours before sailing.

Both memory and stomach are valuable, not in proportion to the burdens that they can carry, but in proportion to their training for their part in the work of the system as a whole, and either of them is made effective as much by what is kept from it as by what is packed into it.
